

QUIZ TIME

Sporting Villains Answers

1. Which England footballer was blamed for England's exit from the 1998 World cup in France?
David Beckham
2. After missing three out of competition drug tests in 2006 which athletes' chances of representing Britain at the Olympics appeared over? Christine Ohuruogu
3. In 1999 which rugby union player's image was in tatters when forced to resign as England captain after a 'News of the World' story claimed he had taken hard drugs in his youth? Lawrence Dallaglio
4. Which footballer set up the Sporting Chance Clinic in 2000, to help sports people suffering from addiction? Tony Adams
5. In 2010 which snooker player found himself being accused of taking a bribe to throw frames in a match?
John Higgins
6. Which British cyclist was banned for two years between 2004-2006 for taking the drug EPO?
David Millar
7. Which French international is probably most remembered for headbutting the Italian player, Marco Materazzi, in the 2006 World Cup Final? Zinedine Zidane
8. Luis Figo is regarded by many as one of Real Madrid's greatest, but what happened to make him such a controversial player in Spain? David Beckham
9. Which footballer has the unfortunate label of having bitten three players on three separate occasions?
Luis Suarez
10. Which former French cyclist was banned for EPO use becoming the central figure in the 1998 Festina affair? Richard Virenque
11. Which sprinter took the 100 metres gold at the 1988 Olympics only to be stripped of the title days later? Ben Johnson
12. Rosie Ruz won the Boston marathon with an impressive time in 1980, but suspicions were raised when her time was found to be 20 minutes faster than her PB. Why was she stripped of the title?
Left the race, took the subway, and re-joined the race
13. Which former England cricket captain in 1994 was accused of ball tampering during the Lord's Test against South Africa? Mike Atherton
14. Which figure skater hired an assassin to hit her competitor and ensure she could not compete?
Tonya Harding
15. Which American athlete spent 6 months in prison in 2008 for lying about her use of steroids to help claim Olympic medals at Sydney 2000? Marion Jones